

SAAA Central Branch - Beekeepers Development Day
Sunday 25 November 2018

Strathalbyn Racing Club, 164 Dry Plains Road, Strathalbyn SA

- 9.00 am Event registrations
- 9.30 am Welcome and President's address
- 9.45 am Industry update
- 10.00 am Beekeeping pollination cycle requirements
- 10.20 am Presentation: Why do honey bees collect fungal spores?
Tea Break
- 10.40 am Disease checks – Taking slides and samples
- 11.00 am AFB Testing
- 11.15 am Hygienic testing
- 11.30 am BBQ Lunch Break
- 12.30 pm Commercial beekeeper's demonstrations
Tea Break
- 2:20 pm Supplementary feeding
- 2.30 pm Varroa mite checks (drones)
- 3.10 pm Closing address and future events
Beekeepers networking drinks – until 4.00pm

Terms and conditions:

- It is recognised that practices differ from one beekeeper to the next. All beekeeping practices are sound and being shared in the interests of promoting best beekeeping practices.
- This event has been supported by the South Australian Apiarist Association to encourage participation and education for the benefit of the South Australian Beekeeping industry, and reserves the right to remove any disruptive persons from the event.
- All participants are required to wear their own Personal Protective Equipment that must be clean and not pose a Biosecurity hazard, and all participants attend at their own risk.
- Cost to SAAA Members: FREE including the BBQ lunch. Non-Members $30 pp. Please RSVP your attendance to 0417 330 866 or email katrina.hudson@saaa.org.au for catering purposes.

South Australian Apiarist's Association – Central Branch

President – Les Crane

les.crane@saaa.org.au

0437 382 663

Vice President – Aidan Ferris

aidan.ferris@saaa.org.au

0404 008 258

Secretary – Katrina Hudson

katrina.hudson@saaa.org.au

0417 330 866